Introducing our New Safety Compliance Manager

Melissa Ledesma

We are pleased to introduce our new safety and compliance manager, Melissa Ledesma. Melissa is conducting routine workplace safety evaluations at all our work locations. Her overall insight will ensure all our work sites are not only in compliance with all OSHA regulations but are a safe place to work. During her regular job site visits to all our work locations, Melissa will implement corrective actions when she observes any safety concerns or opportunities for improvement. Melissa states, "As the new Safety Compliance Manager with PJS, I strive to ensure the safety of all PJS employees." We are convinced that her dedication to safety will provide an excellent and safe work environment to all PJS employees.

Holiday Feasts

We have lots to be thankful for this year. For this we wanted to thank our employees by providing them with Holiday Luncheons and Dinners. Our employees enjoyed the much deserved Holiday feasts!

New PJS Office

We are excited to announce the opening of a new PJS office located near the JFK area. This office will support the JFK and surrounding locations as well as serving as a great benefit to our local employees. Many of our new hire trainings and orientations will be held from this office as well as providing computer access to current and new employees to facilitate the completing of any necessary paperwork or to complete required trainings. Rather than driving to the downtown office, new local applicants can come to the JFK office to complete any corporate required forms and to have any of their questions answered by our PJS staff on hand. Also, job fairs will also be conducted in the JFK office lead by our recruiter, Cindy Tortola. We want to thank all those involved in bringing this new office online and making it a success.

We also celebrated the season with our customers. Providing them with Holiday Breakfast. If you would like to enjoy a breakfast from PJS, next season, let us know and we will gladly deliver!

PJS would like to thank all our customers and employees for making last year a great success. We hope everyone had a memorable and enjoyable New Year's with your loved ones.
